OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 13 May 1975

STAT [REDACTED]

1. (Unclassified - DFM) Pat Roylance, Press Aide to Representative K. Gunn McKay (D., Utah), called in regard to the statement of John Marks printed on the first page of the Washington Star that the CIA uses missionaries to get intelligence. Roylance wanted confirmation or denial, and if confirmed, wanted to know what religious sects had been used. I returned his call and in his absence left a message with the receptionist that we would have no comment on the story. I explained our traditional no comment policy and the reasons behind it.

2. (Unclassified - DFM) Received a call from a caseworker in the office of Representative Bob Casey (D., Tex.). The caseworker in order to respond to a constituent, asked which Federal agency is responsible for internal security operations, and I replied the FBI. She said that was all the information she needed.
